

The following papers will be presented at the International Conference on St. Maximus the Confessor

Pauli Annala:

The Exterior and the Interior Space in the Mystagogia of St. Maximus the Confessor.

Grigory Benevich: *

Maximus Confessor's teaching on God's providence.

Christian Boudignon:

Pseudo Macarius as explicit but unnoticed source of the cosmic liturgy of Maximus Confessor.

Vladimir Cvetkovic:

The Mystery of Christ as Revived Logos Theology.

Peter Van Deun:

Exploring some unedited or neglected texts attributed to Maximus the Confessor.

Christophe Erismann: *

Maximus on the ontological structure of reality.

Simo Knuuttila:

Apatheia in Maximus the Confessor.

Antoine Lévy:

γωνία - Looking Into the Corners of St. Maximus' Cosmic Architecture

Nikolaos Loudovikos:

Inner and Outer Worlds: Maximus the Confessor's Eucharistic Gnosiology.

Pascal Mueller-Jourdan: *

The metaphysical position of the divine as 'desirable' in Proclus' Platonic theology and Maximus Confessor's thought.

Alexei Nesteruk:

World Cosmos and Church Cosmos: St. Maximus the Confessor and Modern Cosmology.

Ana Palanciuc:

Change, Motion and Place in Maximus Confessor's Ambigua.

István Perczel:

Saint Maximus on the Lord's Prayer: An Inquiry into his relationship to the Origenist tradition

Valery V. Petroff:

Ἐπάραξ and ὑφίστημι in Maximus the Confessor's Ambigua.

Torstein T. Tollefsen:

The Concept of the Universal in the Philosophy of St Maximus

* Papers in absentia

The International Conference on St. Maximus the Confessor The Architecture of the Cosmos, arranged by the University of Helsinki and the Studium Catholicum, will be held at the Cultural Centre Sofia in Helsinki, Finland, from September 2nd through 4th, 2013.

For additional information, please go to www.studium.fi/maximus

